Meeting called to order by President Lauterbach at 6:00. It was still daylight!

January's minutes were approved.

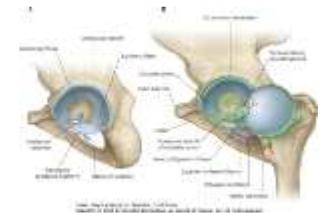

New Members/Guests. No new members, but it was the first meeting for Gloria Frank.

Treasurer's Report. J.Russell proclaimed, "We have a lot of money." Balance is $xxx, but there are outstanding Gala bills yet to come. John reminded dues are $15. They are due in May, but he will take your check any time.

Birthdays (ages squelched to protect the innocent): Bernie Thompson, Mark Haveman, John Patterson, Bruce Wiegand

Anniversaries: Bill/Shirley Hallandal, Brand/Patti Merriman, Alan /Pat Ashworth.

Projects. Erika Ferguson is getting her hip replaced 2/26 →

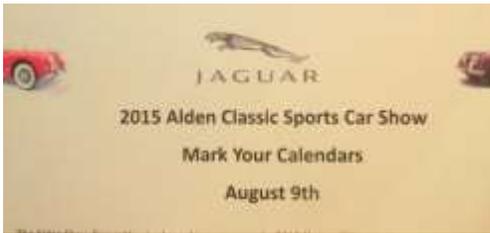

Tales of Yesteryear. A new part of our meeting allowed for reminiscing. Several members shared their stories of finding cars, buying cars, and the romance that surrounded those experiences. The tales took us back as many as 54 years. Be ready to share your story at our next meeting.

Old Business.

The Gala was once again a hit. Lots of compliments for organizers; Holmes', Shaptons', Fergusons'.

Alden Car Show preparation is on track.

Events Committee.

1. The March darts event is happening the afternoon of March 22 at the Filling Station. Details will be blasted out soon.

2. February 22, the sleigh ride is on. Cost is $15 to be paid the day of the event. Meet at Tom's West Bay parking lot at 12:30.

3. February 11, MFD is hosting another "Cars and Coffee" event at their facility on Park Street from 4:00-6:00. Lots new to see there. Good networking.

4. President Lauterbach reviewed activities for the balance of the year. Keep an eye on the website calendar. Still looking for ideas and organizers. April is open. Sharon Golm is exploring a bowlathon at Tucker's in Northport. Bob and Susan King have offered their place north of Frankfort as a possible end-spot for an event down that way. A picnic out at the National Lakeshore was mentioned as a possibility.

Winner of tonight's 50/50 raffle was Sharon Golm.

Meeting adjourned, and then a new round of fun commenced. Attendees were mixed into groups of 4, and Gamemaster, Bruce Wiegand hosted the first TBCC Trivia game. Officers hope to make this a regular new spark at our meetings. President Lauterbach distributed lovely prizes. Lots of laughs.

Respectfully submitted, Jeff Kessler, Co-secretary.
